The Colours Around Us

Author: Jes Kane

Illustrator: Greystroke

The world around us is full of colors.

There are reds, oranges, and yellows beaming out from the sun.

Deep blues and twinkling whites are found in the night sky and stars.

Hues of green from the land, and puffy grays and whites of clouds.

And mountains with swirls of darks and lights.

But sometimes if you're lucky, and looking at just the right time, you'll see the sunset has them all.
